

Chief's Corner

Greetings,

Recently, the actions of a few police officers around the nation has caused law enforcement to be viewed in a negative light. As Chief of Police, I believe it is imperative that police agencies be transparent. Please know that the CCHPD is comprised of officers who have chosen this career to protect those who are unable to protect themselves, and each of us will go out of our way to make a positive difference. We have sworn to serve and protect both professionally and ethically. Understand there is not a member of the CCHPD who will stand by and allow other officers to do wrong, nor tolerate unethical or illegal behavior. As law enforcement professionals we are held to a higher standard and we are committed to serving in a manner that will reach or exceed those expectations.

Respectfully,
Chief John Galvin

Department News

The CCHPD would like to thank you all for your patience, understanding and assistance during these challenging times. To better serve our community, we have installed an Emergency Phone Box outside of the police station main entrance. Calls are directly routed to our dispatch center and not the police department.

Additionally, in light of recent events, we'd like to let our residents know that we are ahead of the curve with our policies and procedures. Through our partnership with the Police Law Institute, all sworn-officers completed refresher training in Use of Force during the month of May.

Crime Prevention Tips

Motor Vehicle Thefts have increased in our community and surrounding communities. Vehicles are used for joyrides and/or to commit other crimes. Offenders have been juveniles and adults. Criminals who commit robberies and other violent crimes will use a stolen vehicle to help conceal their identity.
