

Chief's Corner

Greetings,

I would like to take this opportunity to thank you, the residents, for your continued support and assistance. Please continue to call when you observe anything suspicious and/or have information, even if it is something you may not feel is important. Any information provided is essential and can provide invaluable assistance in investigations. The community is an extension of our Department and your assistance is vital to effective policing.

Remember, "see something, say something".

Thank you again!

Respectfully,
Chief John Galvin

Crime Prevention Tips

Amazon and Apple Telephone Scams.

Scammers call saying there's something wrong with your account (i.e. a suspicious purchase, a lost package, an account breach, or an order they can't fulfill). They're trying to steal your personal information. If you get an unexpected call or message about a problem with any of your accounts, hang up.

- Do not press 1 to speak with customer support
- Do not call a phone number they gave you
- Do not give out your personal information

If you think there may actually be a problem with one of your accounts, contact the company using a method you know is real.
